TAYLOR SOLENO HIRED AS EMPLOYEE BENEFITS ACCOUNT ADMINISTRATOR AT CAVIGNAC & ASSOCIATES

SAN DIEGO – (January 14, 2011) – Taylor Soleno has been named as an employee benefits account administrator for Cavnac & Associates, announced Jeffrey W. Cavnac, CPCU, ARM, RPLU, CRIS, president and principal of the San Diego-based risk management and insurance brokerage firm.

In her new position, Soleno provides administrative support to the agency's Employee Benefits Department managers and services the day-to-day needs of the agency's clients. Her focus is on ensuring that enrollment materials are made available, applications are processed correctly, plan changes are properly instated, and that coverage goes uninterrupted. She also follows through on items called to action by the agency's TAM® management software program.

Soleno brings with her nearly ten years of experience in the insurance industry. Before joining Cavnac & Associates, she served as a group service representative for Health Net of California, where she was employed for three years. For two years prior, she was a bone stem case manager for DJO, Inc. in Vista. Previously, she served two year as a coverage coordinator and another two years as a research analyst for Cigna in Visalia, Calif., where she was involved in the Pacific Northwest Reconciliation Project and facilitated payment of re-adjudicated claims for at-risk providers.

A graduate of California State University at Fresno, Soleno holds a Bachelor of Science degree in criminology. She earned her general California insurance license in 2008.

Born and raised in Visalia, Calif., Soleno currently resides in the UTC area of San Diego with her husband, David. In her leisure time, she enjoys card making, scrapbooking and reading.
